POSITION APPLICATION PACK

ANIMAL KEEPER

- Permanent, full time opportunity.
- Provide care for a range of species.
- $50,000 to $55,000 per annum.
- Weekly Tool and Footwear Allowance.

As Orana approaches its 50th year, we are reflective and determined to continue achieving our conservation goals. We are looking for team members to help us continue our mission to connect people with nature, and to educate and inspire our community towards creating a bright future for the next 50 years, and beyond.

Mō mātou: About Us

Orana is owned and operated by Orana Wildlife Trust, a registered charitable trust and not-for-profit organisation. Conservation is a core part of our mission and the key reason Orana exists. Our on-site habitat restoration and predator pest control programmes provide a connecting wildlife corridor and safe haven for some of Canterbury's most threatened species.

Orana Wildlife Park participates in many zoo-based breeding programmes in partnership with the World Association of Zoos & Aquariums (WAZA), the Zoo & Aquarium Association Australasia (ZAA), DOC and others. We are committed to continuing our efforts towards these breeding programmes into the future.

He angitūtanga: The opportunity

As an Animal Keeper, you will provide a high standard of husbandry and daily care by meeting the various welfare needs of our animal collection. You will assist in developing and participating in various training and enrichment programmes. You will also deliver exciting visitor experiences and take-home messages to inspire positive action for wildlife and our environment.

He kōrero mōu: About you

You will need a minimum of 2 years' experience in animal care in a zoo or similar setting. As this position will be working with either our exotic or native species, past experience can include mammalian, bird or reptilian species.

You will also have:

- Excellent communication skills.
- A track record of innovative husbandry including the development of training and enrichment programmes.
- Demonstrated commitment to the conservation of species and ecosystems.
- Full driver's license and the ability to drive a manual vehicle.
- Recognised qualifications in Captive Animal Management and/or Zoology/Biology.

Orana Wildlife Trust is committed to the conservation of wildlife diversity on this planet. Our aim, along with being dedicated to the conservation of endangered species and the welfare of our animals, is to provide education, recreation and enjoyment to the public.

You will need to show a thorough understanding of the role nutrition plays in the welfare of zoo animals, and an understanding of the 5 domains of animal welfare.

A high level of energy and physical fitness is required to enable you to meet the daily challenges of the role.

Ngā āhuatanga kei a mātou: What we offer

You will join an incredibly passionate team who are committed to their animals and the Trust's conservation goals.

This is a full-time, permanent position, working on a set weekly roster including weekends and public holidays. You will receive an additional 12 days of holidays per annum in lieu of working statutory holidays.

As a member of our team we are able to offer you:

- Access to Employee Assistance Program (EAP) including numerous helpful resources and webinars.
- Opportunities for involvement through staff forums such as our Health and Safety Committee and Culture Committee.
- Pathways for personal growth and development.
- A full uniform supplied plus a non-taxable allowance paid weekly to cover footwear and a basic tool kit.
- Annual flu vaccination.
- Ample free parking on site.

If you are adaptable and open-minded, with a desire to push yourself to benefit conservation and animal welfare, apply now and contact us for an application pack! (As part of your application, we request a cover letter and an outline of the species you have worked with).

Applications for this position close on Sunday 23rd March, 5pm.
