

LEAP INTO A NEW ROLE AND MAKE LIFELONG memories

Senior Wildlife Officer

- Maintain a selection of Dreamworld's captive bird and mammal collection, enclosures & exhibits
- Enjoy complimentary access to Dreamworld, WhiteWater World, and SkyPoint
- Full Time position

Dreamworld Corroboree is one of Southeast Queensland's biggest native wildlife parks, home to hundreds of Aussie animals, including the second largest koala population. We're after a full-time Senior Wildlife Officer to care for our birds and mammals, keep their homes in top shape, and help out with guest talks and team leadership.

What you'll do:

- Feed, clean, breed, treat, and keep records for our birds and mammals
- Prepare procedures, reports, and documentation
- Conduct risk assessments and manage general safety around the wildlife areas
- Engage with guests by assisting with wildlife talks, presentations, and handling feedback
- Liaise with external partners and wildlife organisations
- Support management by helping lead and guide the Wildlife team
- Assist with public relations and help promote Dreamworld's wildlife through marketing activities

What we're looking for:

- Physically fit for animal husbandry and manual handling tasks
- Strong written and verbal communication skills for diverse interactions and report writing
- Experience with Aussie native birds and mammals
- Ability to train and mentor the team
- Q-Fever vaccination
- Animal husbandry qualifications or working towards a Certificate in Wildlife (preferred)
- Leadership experience (a plus)
- Flexibility to work weekends on a 7-day roster
- Current manual driver's licence

At Dreamworld, WhiteWater World and SkyPoint, we're committed to creating an inclusive and accessible environment where everyone, guests and Team Members alike, feel valued and respected. We celebrate the cultural and personal differences of our team, representative of the diverse community in which we operate. By drawing on the unique talents and contributions of each individual, we create unforgettable memories for our guests.
